

Data Flow Diagram

Overview

User enters startup details through the frontend. Flask backend validates the request and forwards it to Google Gemini API. The AI returns structured business insights, which are displayed on the result dashboard.

Data Flow

User → HTML Form → Flask → Gemini API → JSON Response → Dashboard